Dungeons & Dragons Fortune Cards, sold in booster packs of 8 cards, give players fun new ways to survive the challenges of the D&D Encounters in-store play program, as well as their home campaigns. These cards give characters fun, temporary benefits that feel different from the benefits gained from powers and feats, without adding undue complexity to the D&D game.

How to Play:

At the start of each encounter, shuffle your deck and draw a card. You can play one card per round. It requires no action to play. The rules on each card state when you can play it and what effect it has. A card takes effect just once unless it states otherwise, and you discard the card when its effect ends. You can have only one Fortune Card in your hand at a time. At the start of each of your turns, you can do one of the following: Discard the card in your hand and draw a new one. Draw a new card if you don't have one in your hand. Keep the card that's in your hand if you haven't played it.

This box contains 24 boosters.
