With the T-65 X-Wing Damage Deck, you'll find a thirty-three-card damage deck with card text identical to the damage deck included in the X-Wing Second Edition Core Set. The T-65 X-Wing Damage Deck fills the same role as a standard damage deck in your games of X-Wing, but it does have some crucial differences.

First, if you're going to repair the damage that's coming onto your ship, you have to understand it. Every damage card in the T-65 X-Wing Damage Deck displays a blueprint of a T-65 X-wing, with the damaged portion of the ship highlighted in red and neatly labeled in Aurebesh. As soon as you're forced to take one of these damage cards, you'll instantly know which part of your ship is affected, giving you the information you need to adapt and start planning your new path to victory.

In addition to this updated graphic design, the cards of the T-65 X-Wing Damage Deck have been expanded to a larger size. Rather than using the Mini American Board Game card size, as in the X-Wing Second Edition Core Set, the T-65 X-Wing Damage Deck features damage cards that have been expanded to LCG® size, making them easier than ever to read and use on the field of battle.
